

WebAndNet worked with us starting in January of 2005, initially to build a website and later to promote our office furniture sales. During these 2 1/2 years, our revenue increased over 450%.

WebAndNet's contributions included:

1. A search engine effective website that multiplied our web leads,
2. Profitable promotional strategies, processes, and services,
3. Advertising copywriting that, in one case, quadrupled the number of prospects produced,
4. Offline advertising,
5. Brand name change to Cubiture, a contribution to our net worth, and establishing a brand that brought immediate prospects, and
6. Continual marketing analysis and advice.

Much of the 450% revenue increase was due to the improved market conditions. WebAndNet's contributions helped us to capitalize on these market conditions.

I expected an attractive website from WebAndNet, and received profitable marketing.
